

Campus Recreation Camp & Conference Policies

Below you will find information that is most pertinent to the camps and conferences that utilize the Student Rec Center during the summer months. Please note these are just some of our policies. For further information, visit: csurec.colostate.edu/conferences

General Facility Policies

- If your conference did not opt-in for access to the Student Recreation Center, you can access it via a $5/day membership using your Rec Center ID Card or Dining Meal Card.
- All campers must hand their Rec Center ID Card or Dining Meal Card to the ID swipe station staff in order to enter the Rec Center. Campers without their Rec Center ID Card or Dining Meal Card will not be admitted.
- A camper to counselor supervision ratio of 12:1 must be maintained at all times (supervision means counselor has direct sight and verbal control of all 12 campers).
- Campers that are 18 years of age cannot serve as a counselor (for the ratio policy noted above).
- No food is allowed past the lobby turnstiles. Drinks are allowed if in a spill-proof sealable container.
- Lost a card? See your camp director for a replacement.

Aquatic Facility Policies

- Access to the pool for youth camps/conferences is by special reservation only. Reservations must be made 21 days in advance.
- Supervision ratio noted previously must be maintained in the pool area.
- The sauna and steam room are reserved for campers 16 years of age and older.
- The hot tub is for campers 5 years of age and older.
- If a camper cannot swim, they must stay in the zero depth section of the pool or must be within an arm's reach of a counselor.
- Only swim attire can be worn at the pool (swimsuits, swim trunks, etc). Athletic clothes such as mesh shorts and other types of clothing are not allowed.
- No outside toys or lifejackets allowed, unless stamped with Coast Guard approved logo (we have those items available for use on the pool deck).
- No climbing on top of the rock wall or across the waterfall section.

Climbing Wall Policies

- Access to the climbing wall for youth camps/conferences is by special reservation only. Reservations must be made 21 days in advance.
- Only counselors who are belay trained and are 18 years of age and older are allowed to belay.
- Supervision ratio noted previously must be maintained in the Climbing Wall area.
- Belay training is available to individuals from 3-8pm every day. Belay training for large groups must be arranged along with reservations.

Activity Space Policies

- Supervision ratio noted previously must be maintained in all activity spaces.
- Athletic attire and closed-toe, non-marking athletic shoes are needed to use many activity spaces.
- The weight or cardio areas are reserved for users 14 years of age and older.
- Campers 14-15 years of age require direct supervision if using cardio or pin-loaded weight machines and cannot use the free weight area.
- Campers 16-17 years old require direct supervision if using the free weight, pin-loaded weight or cardio machines.

For information about our massage therapy program, fitness classes, general facility policies, and more, visit csurec.colostate.edu/conferences.

Campus Recreation is dedicated to providing inclusive services, programs, and facilities to all persons, and welcomes participants and visitors reflective of all characteristics including age, culture, different ideas and perspectives, disability, ethnicity, familial status, gender identity and expression, geographical background, marital status, national origin, race, religious and spiritual beliefs, sex, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, and veteran status.

